

Privacy Notice

Personal information is collected directly from you for reasons that are discussed in the Client consent & Release of Information.

The personal information we collect is important:

1. To improve services for homeless persons
2. To better understand the needs of homeless persons
3. To improve our programs and inform funders of our services

This information is confidential and used only for program evaluation. It will not be used in any discriminatory fashion that will affect your entry into this program.